1 Blue Row, Whittingehame Mains

HADDINGTON | EH41 4QA

1 Blue Row is a truly magnificent traditional semi-detached cottage which has been completely renovated to the highest standard yet remaining sympathetic to its original features and charm. Restored using best conservation practice and appropriate use of traditional materials, the cottage has been thoughtfully upgraded to the recommended standards for energy efficiency to create a warm home in a tranquil country setting.

The hallway, with deep storage cupboard off, opens into a bright open plan living room/kitchen with a multifuel stove set into a traditional hearth. A sunny dual aspect downstairs bedroom overlooks the garden. The bathroom with underfloor heating retains original bath with brass taps (shower over), period WC and basin, painted pitch pine panelling and polished copper pipework. The ground level is completed by a utility room (with a Belfast sink and plumbing for ample white goods) with original stairs to the upper floor.

Upstairs enjoys a generous study ideal for home working which flows through to the master bedroom with stunning uninterrupted views over farmland to Traprain Law. The dormer window floods the room with an abundance of natural light.

Externally the sizeable plot is laid to lawn with vegetable beds and a large potting shed within the garden and the area beyond is ideal for a large garage, workshop or garden room studio (subject to usual consents)
