Area

Corstorphine is a desirable residential area of the capital lying on the north western outskirts of the city. Princes Street and the city centre (approximately 4 miles) are readily accessible via regular public transport services and, in the opposite direction, the city by-pass, central motorway network and Edinburgh International Airport are all within a short drive. Corstorphine itself boasts one of the city's most comprehensive suburban shopping centres, with the Gyle Shopping Centre and Hermiston Gait also within close proximity. Small speciality shops and a variety of high street stores are all represented. There are large branches of Marks & Spencer, Tesco, Morrisons and Sainsbury's all nearby. Edinburgh Business Park and the Royal Bank Headquarters at Gogar are readily accessible. Leisure options are plentiful and diverse. Cafes, restaurants, a casino, several golf clubs and a David Lloyd Leisure Centre, as well as the Drum Brae Leisure Centre and Swimming Pool, the Drum Brae Library Hub and the lovely open spaces of Cammo Estate and Corstorphine Hill, are to name but a few. There are several local access points to the city's cycle path network. The local schools have an excellent academic reputation.
